

Archaic Texts

Non-Linear

Complexity of narrator

Complexity of plot

Resistant Texts

BAME authors/Promoting cultural diversity

Goldsworthy Year 2 CYCLE B	What keeps me healthy?	How do stories help to shape our imaginations?	If you could go anywhere, where would you go?
Ongoing	Aesop's Fables The hodgeheg Dick-King Smith,	The ugly duckling, Voices in the park Anthony Browne
Key text drivers for teaching reading and writing	The little red hen makes pizza Sturges The Tiny Seed Eric Carle Eat your peas Kes Gray The shopping basket John Burningham Handas Hen E Browne Supertato Sue Hendra	Wolves Gravett The Last Wolf Mini –Grey The very smart pea and the princess to be Mini-Grey There is no Dragon in this story Carter The Book with no Pictures Novak The Tunnel Anthony Browne The wind in the willows Masai and I Kroll	A country far away Nigel Gray Journey Aaron Becker The way back home Oliver Jeffers A river, Marc Martin Space Tortoise Ross Montgomery The marvellous Moon Map Teresa Heapy Grandad's Island Benji Davis
Non-Fiction	Selection of Food and where food comes from texts. Fruits around the world BBC – Watch - seasons	Selection of books - castles, moats, knights.	Exploration resource book Selection of pirate fact books I wonder why the sea is salty National trust adventure handbooks – go wild in the woods Go wild on the river, Go wild at the seaside.
Linked Texts	George saves the world by lunchtime The world came to my place today Long distance Lunch Aneta Ganeri Food for festivals Witherington Kind Axel Scheffler	The boy who grew dragons Andy Shepherd Peter pan The three little wolves and the big bad pig Trivizas	Alice in Wonderland Treasure Island The secret garden retold by S Davidson
Poetry	Granny Goat Brian Moses		Once Upon a Raindrop James Carter Pirate Poems John Foster
Science Stories	Going to catch a piggy-wig	The Fairy Godmother's day off	Little Rabbit goes home
COVID linked texts	While we can't hug Eoin McLaughlin Thank you Baked potato Matt Lucas		