Dear Parents and Carers,

We are pleased to be able to share with you that we have appointed Miss Buckler as the new, permanent, DaVinci class teacher. Miss Buckler is currently working in another school and will be starting with us after February half term. We are just finalising arrangements for DaVinci class for January and will update you as soon as we can. We are very keen to keep the transition between teachers as smooth as possible.

Please see a message from Miss Buckler below:

Hello! My name is Miss Buckler and I will be the new teacher in Da Vinci class. I am relocating to Oxford in the New Year and I am really excited about this next chapter in my life.

I have been a Reception teacher for the past three years. Teaching the youngest children at school is a really special and rewarding role that I am incredibly passionate about. I am looking forward to joining Blewbury Primary School, getting to know the children, families and staff better.

I will be spending some time with Miss Reeder and other Blewbury staff at the start of next year, so that I can learn the children's routines and their classroom really well. Together, we will work hard to ensure there is a smooth transition for everyone.

Feel free to talk to me after the end of the day, I will be in the classroom preparing resources and getting organised for the following day. This is a good time to discuss anything that you feel I need to know so that I can support your child when they are in school. Alternatively, you can email me via the school office.

I am really looking forward to meeting you and your child soon.

We have also appointed a teacher to cover Goldsworthy class when Miss Calvert goes on maternity leave and will update you further on this next week.

We are sad to be saying goodbye to Mrs Davda at the end of this term. Mrs Davda has been teaching at Blewbury for 10 years, specialising in languages. Mrs Davda is moving to a role outside of education. I am sure you will all join me in thanking Mrs Davda for supporting our school and wish her well in her new job.

Yours sincerely,

Miss Reeder
Head of school
